

Meet our 2024 / 2025 Lead Recreational Trampoline Coaches

Stephanie Stuart – Assistant Head Coach

Certification: NCCP Trampoline Level 3 & Provincial Judge

Stephanie is the assistant head coach on our competitive team and has been coaching since 2007. Along with her experience as a level 3 trampoline coach, she is also a provincial trampoline judge. She has an incredible amount of experience as a previous provincial trampolinist and has coached multiple athletes from recreational classes into the national stream.

Ryan Labrie – Freestyle Head Coach

Certification: NCCP Level 2 Trampoline, Air Doubles Certified

Ryan started coaching Gymnastics & Trampoline in 2013, along with that he also coached Parkour. Ryan has coached Airborne's competitive team for many years and is also a free running and parkour athlete. Along with coaching, Ryan works in the Media & Audio field.

Bailey Bartley-Jameson – Manager & Lead Coach

Certification: NCCP Level 2 Trampoline & Competition 1

Bailey has been coaching since 2020 and has coached numerous recreational classes, the pre-competitive program and the competitive team. She has previous experience as a provincial gymnast and trampolinist. Bailey is also studying Psychology at Laurier University.

Amelia Masotti – Coach

Certification: NCCP Level 1 Trampoline

Amelia has been coaching trampoline since 2016 and has coached recreational classes as well as pre-competitive classes. Amelia was also a previous trampoline national athlete and is currently studying Kinesiology at Laurier University.

Adam Norton – Supervisor & Lead Coach

Certification: NCCP Level 2 Trampoline & Competition 1

Adam has been coaching since 2022 and quickly rose up as an excellent coach at Airborne Trampoline. Adam also has years of experience as a provincial athlete in trampoline, and is currently taking Global Studies at Laurier University,

